

Center for Subjectivity Research

Copenhagen Summer School in Phenomenology and Philosophy of Mind

13 -17 August 2018

UNIVERSITY OF COPENHAGEN

Topics:

Intentionality, Perception, Memory, Corporeality and Intercorporeality, Illness and Suffering, Enactivism, Methodology, Qualitative research.

The summer school will provide essential insights into central themes within the philosophy of mind, viewed from a phenomenological perspective.

It will consist of a mixture of keynote lectures, PhD presentations and seminars (32 hours total), aimed at advanced MA students and PhD students. Post Docs are also encouraged to apply.

Keynote Speakers:

Søren Overgaard, University of Copenhagen, Denmark
Mark Rowlands, University of Miami, USA
Fredrik Svenaeus, Södertörn University, Sweden
Tanja Staehler, University of Sussex, UK
Dan Zahavi, University of Copenhagen, Denmark

Deadline for registration is 8 May 2018

More information:

cfs.ku.dk/summer-school-2018